What happens if my check is rejected or unpaid?

If we reject a check for remote deposit, you must physically deposit the original check at one of our branches.

You are solely responsible for verifying that checks that you deposit through the service have been received and accepted for deposit by DCCU. DCCU will provide you with notice of any deposits that it is unable to process because checks were returned unpaid by the payor financial institution. We may choose any reasonable method for providing such notices to you.

What if there is an error?

DCCU will provide you with periodic statements that will identify the deposits you make through the service. You may also access Online Banking for information about your deposits, return items, deposit adjustments, checks and other transactions. It is your responsibility to review all such information that DCCU makes available to you in a timely manner to verify that deposits made through the service have been received and accepted and are accurate. Notify us promptly of any errors, omissions, or discrepancies in a deposit. Notify us by e-mailing us at mobilesupport@dawsonco-opcu.com, or by utilizing the Secure Message feature in Online Banking, or writing to DCCU, PO Box 585, Renville, MN 56284 or telephoning us at 320-329-3152.
