- ii. There may be at least a one-business-day delay in transferring funds between your accounts. Except as provided in this Agreement, all Internet Banking transaction instructions received by 4:30 p.m. CST will be completed that business day. Any instruction received after 4:30 p.m. CST may be completed the next business day.

Additional Terms and Conditions

Obtaining Account Balance and Transaction History - You can obtain balance and transaction history on all eligible accounts. Current balance and activity information is available as of the close of the previous business day.

Transferring Funds - The number of transfers from a savings account is limited as described in the applicable Truth In Savings Disclosure. If a hold has been placed on deposits made to an account from which you wish to transfer funds, you cannot transfer the portion of the funds held until the hold expires.

Check Stop Pay

On the terms hereinafter set out, the account holder instructs Dawson Co-op Credit Union to stop payment on the transaction submitted. The stop payment order shall remain in effect for six months. A charge, as reflected in the current Fee Schedule, will be assessed to the account holder as payment for implementing this order.

By directing Dawson Co-op Credit Union to stop payment on a requested transaction, the account holder agrees to hold the Financial Institution harmless against any and all loss, claims, damages, and costs, including court costs and attorney's fees, that Dawson Co-op Credit Union may suffer or incur by reason of non-payment of the submitted transaction if presented prior to withdrawal of these instructions or expiration thereof.

The account holder understands that the stop payment request must be received at least three (3) business days before a scheduled debit or in time to give Dawson Co-op Credit Union time to act upon it. The account holder also understands that it is necessary to provide the correct information related to the transaction and that failure to do so may result in the payment of the items. The account holder agrees to hold harmless and indemnify the Dawson Co-op Credit Union for all expenses, costs, and damages incurred by payment of the requested stop pay item if such payment is the result of failure of the account holder to meet the time requirements noted above, or if such payment is the result of failure of the account holder to furnish any item of information requested, completely, accurately and correctly. Member further states that the debit transaction was not originated with fraudulent intent by self or any person acting in concert with self, and that the entry of pin/password and/or "Submit" serves as authorization and certifies under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Check Withdrawal

A check withdrawal is a request to withdraw a specific amount of money from your account. For security reasons the check will be mailed to the address on record at Dawson Co-op Credit Union. Following selection of account and amount to debit for check, click Submit. You will be asked to verify the information entered. Note: the system automatically assumes that the last two digits entered are cents and places a decimal point before them. The entry of pin/password and/or "Submit" serves as authorization, verification the information is correct and acknowledgement that a charge, as reflected in the current Fee Schedule, will be assessed to the account holder as payment for implementing this order. If your request is made during normal business hours, we will process your request the same business day. If a check does not arrive within a reasonable amount of time, contact DCCU.

Bill Pay Service Using the Service

The DCCU Online Banking Payment Service allows you to schedule bill payments through DCCU Online Banking. You can schedule, at your option, for the payment of your current, future and recurring bills from any of your DCCU checking accounts, with the exception of small business accounts. There is no limit to the number of payments that may be authorized. You may pay any merchant or individual through the use of DCCU Online Banking. We are unable to process any payment of taxes or court-directed payments through DCCU Online Banking Payment Services.

By furnishing us with the names of payees/merchants, you authorize us to follow the payment instructions to these payee/merchants that you provide us through DCCU Online Banking. When we receive a payment instruction (for the current or a future date), we will remit funds to the payee on your behalf from the funds in your selected checking account. When DCCU Online Banking receives a payment instruction, you authorize it to charge your checking account and remit funds on your behalf so that the funds arrive on or before the DELIVER BY day designated by you. While it is anticipated that most transactions will be completed on the exact day designated, it is understood that due to circumstances beyond the control of DCCU Online Banking, particularly delays in handling and posting payments slow-responding companies or financial institutions, some transactions may take a day or even a few days longer.

For this reason, it is recommended that all payments transfers be scheduled so the DELIVER BY date is on or before the actual due date, not the late date. If you properly follow the procedures described herein, and DCCU Online Banking fails to deliver a payment on the scheduled payment date, DCCU Online Banking will bear the responsibility for late charges. In any other event, including, but not limited to, choosing a DELIVER BY date on or before actual due date, the risk of incurring and the responsibility for paying any and all charges or penalties shall be borne by you.

DCCU Online Banking will use its best efforts to process all your payments properly. However, DCCU Online Banking shall incur no liability if it is unable to complete any payments initiated by you through DCCU Online Banking payment services because of the existence of any one or more of the following circumstances:

1. Your account does not contain sufficient funds to complete the transaction or the transaction would exceed the credit limit of your overdraft protection account.
2. The DCCU Online Banking processing center is not working properly and you know or have been advised by the service about the malfunction before you execute the transaction.
3. You have not provided DCCU Online Banking with the correct names or account information for those persons or entities to whom you wish to direct payment.

4. Circumstances beyond the DCCU Online Banking's control such as, but not limited to, fire, flood, or interference from an outside force that would prevent the proper execution of the transaction, DCCU Online Banking has taken reasonable precautions to avoid those circumstances.

You have the right to stop or change any scheduled payment. You must cancel the payment by no later than 3 PM (Central Time), on the SEND BY DATE, by using the CANCEL function on the DCCU Online Banking "Pending Payment" screen.

DCCU reserves the right to terminate your use of DCCU Online Banking bill payment service in whole or part, at any time without prior notice.

If, for any reason, you should ever wish to cancel DCCU Online Banking bill payment services, we strongly suggest that you cancel all future bill payments at the same time that you cancel your service, either by deleting those payments yourself using DCCU Online Banking or calling DCCU Dawson Branch at 320-769-2908 or 800-276-0025 or Renville Branch at 320-329-3152 or 1-866-529-4623. This will ensure that future payments and transfers made by you will not be duplicated. We will automatically delete all outstanding payment orders (all individual payments and all recurring payments) once we have been notified that your service has been terminated. We will continue to maintain your accounts until you notify us otherwise.

Bill Pay Fees

The monthly fee for DCCU Online Banking payment services is $0.00. This fee covers unlimited bill payments to anyone you wish to pay in the U.S. These fees cover service for the previous month and are effective upon enrollment. Fees will be charged to your payment account, whether or not bill payments are made out of that account, or any other account linked to DCCU Online Banking payment services.

Additionally, you agree to pay any special charges in effect as announced by the Credit Union from time to time. These charges are in addition to the fees and service charges specified in your applicable checking, savings, overdraft protection account agreements (for example, uncollected or overdraft charges on your checking account).

If the payment account has insufficient funds to cover fees, the Credit Union will deduct the fee from any other checking account linked to DCCU Online Banking (in any order we may choose). If the fee cannot be paid, we may cancel your Bill Pay service. After cancellation, your Bill Pay service may be reinstated by contacting DCCU once sufficient funds are available in your payment account to cover the bill payment fees and any other pending transfers or debits.

General Terms

Changes to Charges, Fees or Other Terms

We reserve the right to change the charges, fees or other terms described in this Agreement. However, when changes are made to any fees or charges, we will notify you by sending a notice to you at the address shown on our records, or send you an electronic mail message (E-mail). The notice will be posted or sent at least thirty (30) days in advance of the effective date of any additional fees for Online transactions, or of any stricter limits on the type, amount or frequency of transactions or any increase in your responsibility for unauthorized transactions, unless an immediate change is necessary to maintain the security of the system. If such a change is made, and it can be disclosed without jeopardizing the security of the system, we will provide you with electronic or written notice within thirty (30) days after the change. As always, you may choose to accept or decline changes by continuing or discontinuing the accounts or services to which these changes relate. We also reserve the option, in our business judgment, to waive, reduce or reverse charges or fees in individual situations. Changes to fees applicable to specific accounts are governed by the applicable Membership Agreement.

Disclosure of Account Information

You understand that in addition to information furnished pursuant to legal process, some information about your accounts may automatically be disclosed to others. For example, the tax laws require disclosure to the government of the amount of the interest you earn, and some transactions, such as certain large currency and foreign transactions, must be reported to the government. The Credit Union may also provide information about your account(s) to persons or companies the Credit Union believes would use the information for reasonable purposes, such as when a prospective creditor seeks to verify information you may have given in a credit application. In addition, the Credit Union routinely informs a credit bureau when accounts are closed by the Credit Union because they were not handled properly. The Credit Union may also seek information about you from others, such as a credit bureau, in connection with the opening or maintaining of your account. You authorize these transfers of information.

Disclosure of Account Information to Third Parties

We will disclose information to third parties about your account or transfers you made:

When it is necessary to complete the transfers;

In order to verify the existence and conditions of your account for a third party, such as a credit bureau or merchant;

In order to comply with a government agency or court orders; or

If you give us written permission.

C. Other Agreements. You agree that, when you use Mobile Banking, you remain subject to the terms and conditions of your existing agreements with any unaffiliated service providers, including, but not limited to, your mobile service provider and that this Agreement does not amend or supersede any of those agreements. You understand that those agreements may provide for fees, limitations and restrictions which might impact your use of Mobile Banking (such as data usage or text messaging charges imposed on you by your mobile service provider for your use of or interaction with Mobile Banking), and you agree to be solely responsible for all such fees, limitations and restrictions. You agree that only your mobile service provider is responsible for its products and services. Accordingly, you agree to resolve any problems with your provider directly without involving us.

Any deposit account, loan or other banking product accessed through this Service is also subject to the Account Agreements and Disclosures provided at the time of Account opening. You should review the Account disclosures carefully, as they may include transaction limitations and fees which might apply to your use of Mobile Banking.

IV. Permitted Mobile Banking Transfers

You may use the Service to transfer funds between your eligible Dawson Co-op Credit Union accounts ("Internal Transfer, with the exception of cross-member transfers"). You may not transfer to or from an Account at another financial institution using Mobile Banking. If you submit your transfer request prior to the deadline established by us for Mobile Banking transfer service, you will initiate an immediate Internal Transfer via Mobile Banking. Transfer transaction requests received after 4:30 p.m. CST on business days and all transactions which are requested on Saturdays, Sundays, or holidays on which the Credit Union chooses to remain closed, will be processed on the Credit Union's next business day.

You must have sufficient funds available in the selected account at the time the transfer request is received, including any available overdraft protection. We may process transfers that exceed your available balance at our sole discretion. If we process the transfer and unless your overdraft protection is provided via an Overdraft Line of Credit, you agree to cover any overdraft amount plus any applicable fees.

Federal regulations require financial institutions to limit the way withdrawals may be made from a savings. Each transfer from a savings account using Mobile Banking is counted as one of the six limited transactions permitted each monthly statement cycle period, as described in the Member Agreement. You may be subject to fees or account conversion if you exceed the transactions limits of your Account using Mobile Banking or any other methods outlined in your Member Agreement.

We may also limit the type, frequency and amount of transfers for security purposes and may change or impose the limits without notice, at our option.

You agree to confirm the completion of each transfer in your account balance and transaction history before withdrawing transferred funds.

Any loss we incur from a delay or processing error resulting from an irregular endorsement or other markings by you will be your responsibility. Rejection of deposits:

After we receive Check images and all other required deposit information from you through the Service, we shall provisionally credit your designated account for the total amount of such Checks. The provisional credit is subject to final payment of the Checks and is also subject to your Credit Union Account Agreement. You agree that all deposits received by us are subject to verification and final inspection and may be rejected by us in our sole discretion, and you shall be liable to the Credit Union for any errors, inaccuracies, breach of warranties and any other loss sustained by, or claim made against the Credit Union relating to such deposits. The Credit Union is not liable for any service or late charges that may be imposed against you due to the Credit Union's rejection of any Check that you transmit for deposit through the Service. In all cases, you are responsible for any loss or overdraft plus any applicable fees to your account due to a Check being returned. You acknowledge and agree that, while we normally provide notice of rejected deposits, we may reject any Check transmitted through the Service in our sole discretion without notice to you, and we will not be liable for any such rejection or failure to notify you of such rejection. If we reject a Check for remote deposit, you must physically deposit the original Check at one of our branches within 45 days.

Unpaid checks:

Should you fail to produce the original check, you authorize us to deduct that amount from your account

You are solely responsible for verifying that Checks that you deposit by using the Service have been received and accepted for deposit by the Credit Union. The Credit Union will provide you with notice of any deposits that it is unable to process because Checks were returned unpaid by the payor financial institution. You agree to accept such notices at your e-mail address on file with us, but we may choose any reasonable method for providing such notices to you. In the event that the Credit Union credits your account for a Check that is subsequently dishonored and returned, you authorize the Credit Union to debit the amount of such Check plus any associated fees from the account. To the extent that funds in your account are insufficient to cover such amount, we shall debit the deficiency amount from any of your other account(s) with the Credit Union in our sole discretion. Our right to charge your account(s) will apply without regard to whether the Check was timely returned or whether there is any other claim or defense that the Check was improperly returned. You understand and agree, that since the original Check is your property, it will not be returned and the Credit Union may charge back an image of the Check, an ACH debit, or other electronic or paper debit, as applicable, to your account. You further agree that any image that we charge back may be in the form of an electronic or paper reproduction of the original Check or a substitute check. You may not use the Service to deposit a substitute check and you may not deposit the original Check through the Service or in any other manner if you receive a dishonored Check. You agree to comply with any additional instructions we may provide to you in connection with returned Checks.

Duty to report errors:

The Credit Union will provide you with periodic statements that will identify the deposits that you make through the Service. In addition, you may access the Credit Union's Online Banking service for information about your deposits, return items, deposit adjustments, Checks and other transactions on your accounts. You agree that it is your responsibility to review all such information that the Credit Union makes available to you in a timely manner to verify that deposits made through the Service have been received and accepted by the Credit Union and are accurate. Receipt of a Check by the Credit Union through the Service does not constitute an acknowledgement by the Credit Union that the Check is error-free or that we will be liable for the Check. You agree to notify us promptly of any errors, omissions, or discrepancies in a deposit within the time periods established in your Credit Union Account Agreement. You may notify us by e-mailing us at mobilesupport@dawsonco-opcu.com, or by utilizing the Secure Message feature in Online Banking, or writing to DCCU, PO Box 585, Renville, MN 56284 or telephoning us at 320-329-3152. You agree to cooperate in any investigation by the Credit Union of any unsuccessful or lost transmission. Subject to applicable law, any failure by you to notify the Credit Union of any error, omission or other discrepancy in accordance with this Agreement and your Credit Union Account Agreement shall relieve the Credit Union of any liability for such error, omission or discrepancy.

Availability of Service/Contingency:

In the event you are unable to capture, balance, process, produce or transmit a file to the Credit Union, or otherwise comply with the terms or the Procedures for any reason, including but not limited to, communications, equipment or software outages, interruptions or failures, you will transport or mail the originals of all checks to the closest Credit Union location. The deposit of original checks at an office of the Credit Union shall be governed by the terms and conditions of the Deposit Account Agreement and not by the terms of this Agreement.

Storage, security and destruction/disposal of the checks:

After you receive confirmation that we have received an image, you must securely store the original Check for 45 days after transmission to us and make the original Check accessible to us at our request. Upon our request from time to time, you will deliver to us within five (5) Business Days, at your expense, the requested original Check in your possession. If not provided in a timely manner, such amount will be reversed from your account. Promptly after the 45-day retention period expires, you must destroy the original Check by first marking it "VOID" and then destroying it by cross-cut shredding or another commercially acceptable means of destruction. After destruction of the original Check, the image will be the sole evidence of the original Check. You agree that you will never represent the original Check. You understand that you are responsible if anyone is asked to make a payment based on an original check that has already been paid.

Presenting checks more than once:

Once you have used the Service to deposit a Check you agree not to present, or allow anyone else to present, that original Check or a substitute check of that original Check again for deposit through the Service or by any other means. If you or anyone else presents a Check or substitute check for deposit more than once, in violation of this Agreement, you agree to indemnify, defend and hold the Credit Union harmless from and against all liability and damages that may result from any claims, suits or demands from third parties with respect to such Check or substitute check. You agree that we may debit from your Credit Union account the aggregate amount of any Checks that are deposited more than once. To the extent that funds in your account are insufficient to cover such amount, we shall debit the deficiency amount from any other of your account(s) with the Credit Union in our sole discretion. Duplication of items presented for deposit may result in revocation of the Remote Deposit Service and/or closing of accounts belonging to members who deliberately deposit checks more than once.

Authentication Method/Use of the Services:

You agree that we are entitled to act upon instructions we receive with respect to the Service under your user ID, password, test key or other code or authentication method that we require (these components are referred to herein collectively as your "Authentication Method"). You are liable for all transactions made or authorized with the use of your Authentication Method. We have no responsibility for establishing the identity of any person who uses your Authentication Method. You agree that if you give any component of your Authentication Method to anyone or fail to safeguard its secrecy, you will be in violation of your obligations under your Credit Union Account Agreement and this Agreement. You agree to take appropriate steps to ensure that all components of your Authentication Method are protected and kept confidential. You agree to indemnify and release us from any and all liability, and agree not to make any claim or bring any action against us, relating to our honoring or allowing any actions or transactions that are conducted under your Authentication Method or acting upon instructions, messages or authorizations provided to us using your Authentication Method. By accessing the Service with your Authentication Method, you authorize us to complete the requested transaction(s) through the Service. Any requests or instructions we receive from you through the Service using your Authentication Method shall be considered "in writing" under all applicable law and shall have the same force and legal effect as a writing signed by you. This includes, but is not limited to, inquiries, deposit transactions, Checks deposited, Check images, changes to accounts or services or any other communication you provide us through the Service using your Authentication Method.

Data security:

You will complete each deposit promptly. If you are unable to complete your deposit promptly, you will ensure that your mobile device remains securely in your possession until the deposit has been completed. It is your responsibility to establish and maintain procedures to safeguard against unauthorized deposits. You will notify us immediately by telephone at 320-329-3152 and with written notice at DCCU, PO Box 585, Renville, MN 56284 Attn: Mobile Deposit Support, if you learn of any loss or theft of original checks. You will ensure the safety and integrity of original Checks from the time of receipt until the time of destruction. If warranted in our reasonable judgment, we may audit and monitor you, and you agree to cooperate with us to permit such monitoring, to confirm that you have satisfied your obligations under this Agreement.

Cooperation with Investigations:

You agree to cooperate with us in the investigation of unusual transactions, poor quality transmissions, and resolution of member claims, including by providing, upon request and without further cost, any originals or copies of items deposited through the Service in your possession and your records relating to such items and transmissions.
